Tallong Campus is a campus of Santa Sabina College situated in the Southern Highlands at Tallong, near Goulburn. It has facilities for Outdoor Education, Retreats and Conferences, including a ropes course and other outdoor activities. Applications are invited for the position of Head Cook, which is a full time permanent position, to lead and supervise the kitchen team at our Tallong Campus.

Head Cook

The Head Cook will be responsible for the oversight of the kitchen, its operation and food safety program.

The successful applicant will possess:

- Qualifications in Food Safety
- Knowledge of food safety procedures and implementation
- Previous experience and demonstrated skills in the preparation and presentation of meals for 20-140 guests.
- Understanding and experience in food nutrition and menu planning
- Highly developed communication skills and an understanding of risk management and how to implement safety procedures
- Demonstrated ability to work in a team
- Current Driver's Licence and Senior First Aid Certificate

Casual Cook

Applications are invited for the position of Casual Cook to provide relief in our busy kitchen. Previous experience in a commercial kitchen is essential.

The work pattern includes a rotating roster over seven days, including morning and afternoon shifts.

Applications close: 27 April 2015 and can be sent to recruitment@ssc.nsw.edu.au. Applications should include a letter of application, CV and two recent professional referees.

Applicants will be expected to have completed the new Working With Children Check